CONNECTING THE PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

In a promising development, Barrister Arafat Hosen Khan, Chairman of the Department of Law at North South University, engaged in a fruitful discussion with Mohammad Al Mamun, Director of the National Legal Aid Services Organization (NLASO), at the facilitation of GiZ Bangladesh. The meeting bore fruit as an agreement was reached to enable 15 students from NSU Law to collaborate with NLASO for a three-month period. This landmark initiative is set to become a long-term partnership between NSU Law and NLASO, marking a significant step forward in legal education and community support.

Prof. Md. Rizwanul Islam, Professor, Department of Law, NSU, published an article titled "A Tale of Too Little: Anti-dumping Tariff Between SAFTA Contracting Parties" in the 57th volume of the Journal of World Trade. The article argues that SAFTA's mechanism needs to be more desirous and should dismantle antidumping duties in intra-SAARC trade.

Mr. Nafiz Ahmed, Lecturer, Department of Law, NSU, published an article titled "Subordinate Judiciary's Authority in Interpreting Laws: A Critical Analysis of Terab Ali v. Syed Ullah" in The Daily Star. This scholarly piece provides an insightful commentary on a recent judgment delivered by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Bangladesh.

Prof. Md. Rizwanul Islam, Professor, Department of Law, NSU, published an article titled "Exorcising the Colonial Legacy in Bangladeshi Legal System Through Legal Education: A Manifesto" on 14 August 2023 in the NSU LAW BLOG.

Mr. Nafiz Ahmed, Lecturer, Department of Law, NSU published an article titled "Searching for a Definition of Administrative Law" on 14 August 2023 in the NSU LAW BLOG.
